Chagrin Falls' Shelly Marks eliminated from TV Land's hit reality series She's Got the Look

CHAGRIN FALLS, Ohio - Chagrin Falls model and actress Shelly Marks was eliminated Thursday night from the second season of the TV Land hit reality series She's Got the Look. One of the final four contestants Shelly has been changed by the experience.

Shelly released the following statement:

"I would like to take a moment to thank Alison Grodner productions, Randy Bernstein, Viacom, MTV and TVLAND for the wonderful opportunity to appear on the hit tv show She's Got the Look. Although my character took an unexpected direction, I realize that the show is an amazing opportunity to showcase my beauty, talent and desire to succeed in the entertainment business. I deeply appreciate the seven weeks of focus that my character received, and although I am not the winner of the competition, I know that this experience and all of the professional contacts that I made through my work on this great show will only help to propel my career in an onward and upward motion.

I'd also like to wish Cindy, Theresa and LeeAnne the best of luck on the final episode of the show, as well as continued success in their careers for years to come.

Peace and Love,

Shelly Marks"
